KEYSTONE RADICALS MEET.

THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE CONVENTION IS IN SESSION.

Chairman Elkin Congratulates Them on Pledges Redeemed—The Civil Service Bills.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 26.—The Republican State Convention met here today. Chairman Elkin, in calling the convention to order, said that every ante-election pledge of the party had been redeemed. Descending to particulars, he recounted the efforts to secure the passage through the Legislature of four reform measures, which he declared substantially covered the reform pledges put in the platform of the party in 1895.

The Senate passed the bills, but they encountered considerable opposition in the house. This was especially true with reference to the civil service bills.

This attitude of the House he attributes to the opposition to civil service bureaus and the blanket extension by Cleveland when his term was nearly expired. He then went on to eulogize the other "reform" bills passed. One of these pretends to prevent but in reality legalizes party payments of poll taxes; the other forbids arbitrary assessments.

WHEAT RALLIES SHARPLY.

Advances Seven Cents in Chicago and Three Cents in New York.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—Wheat shot upward today. September wheat which closed at ninety-six and three-quarters last night sold up to a dollar and three cents this morning.

Takes a Rise in New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—A further advance was expected on the curb in wheat today because of higher cables. When the market opened wheat advanced three cents. Corn also went up several points.

Confederate Reunion.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

REIDSVILLE, Aug. 26.—The Confederate veterans are holding their reunion at Old Salem Church, near here, today, and an immense crowd is present. The old "vets," as well as the others present, are enjoying themselves hugely.

Several prominent speakers are on hand, and some splendid addresses are being had.

The inner man has been looked after well, and there is no lack of something to eat. An elegant dinner was spread.

Negroes Frantic with Holy Zeal.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

MOUNTVILLE, S. C., Aug. 26.—Never before has there been in the history of the state, or probably that of the United States, such a wonderful religious revival as is in progress here now. Thousands of negroes are shouting themselves hoarse and their actions become more and more frantic.

The Grim Spectre Beckons.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

BOMBAY, Aug. 26.—Cholera has made its appearance among members of the Northampton regiment stationed at this place. Every precaution will be taken to prevent the further spread of the dread disease.

Will Not Reduce Grain Duty.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

PARIS, Aug. 26.—The Cabinet today decided that there is no ground at present for modifying the duties on cereals and they will, therefore, remain as heretofore. This decision will entail considerable suffering upon the poor in the larger cities.

Sugar Trust Pulls Lever a Notch.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The sugar trust advanced certain grades of refined sugar one-sixteenth of a cent this morning.

GETTING DOWN TO HARD PAN.

Veterans at Buffalo Begin the Business of the Session.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

BUFFALO, Aug. 26.—The business of the annual encampment of the Grand Army commenced in earnest today. Camp Jewett was astir early and the session called to order by Commander Clarkson was one of the largest of recent years.

President McKinley, and Governor Black, also Secretary Alger, expect to spend a good portion of the day at the encampment.

The first business was the address of the commander-in-chief, which with the address of welcome, occupied considerable time.

The report shows that more than seven thousand members have died within the past year. Pensions and patriotic institutions, including public schools, received particular attention.

Miners Gaining Courage.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 26.—There was a decided infusion of courage seen today among the striking miners on account of the failure of the operators to break the strike.

A new cooking house has been put up at Turtle Creek by the employees of the Westinghouse company, who are also supplying provisions.

Legally Hanged in Virginia.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

RICHMOND, Aug. 26.—The first legal hanging in the history of Virginia for attempted assault upon a woman took place here this morning, when Fife, a negro 19 years old, was executed for attempting an assault upon Mrs. W. B. Marks. He had previously confessed his crime. About 75 people witnessed the execution.

In Court.

The case of the State vs. Alec. Gentry, for rape, was not pressed this morning.

State vs. H. F. Stinson, false pretense, was taken up yesterday evening and consumed the greater part of today. It ended in the acquittal of Stinson.

State vs. Ogburn Smith, assault with deadly weapon, was being heard when we went to press.

Thought to be Improving.

Mrs. Livingston Johnson, who has been so extremely ill with some heart trouble, is thought to be slightly improved today. Her trouble is only sympathetic and her physician thinks he has the cause removed. If she can withstand another attack she will recover. She is very weak.

The symptoms in Miss Callie Tucker's case are thought to be more favorable today. She has been sick about two months and has had a rough siege.

A New Dry Goods Store.

We were slightly mistaken yesterday in our statement in regard to the new dry goods firm of S. G. Hodgins & Co. The new firm will have no connection whatever with the old firm of Hodgins, Pegrum & Co., and will carry a full and up-to-date line of dry goods, notions and shoes. They hope to be open by September 15th.

Watch the columns of THE TELEGRAM for further announcements.

High Point's New Paper.

The High Point Citizen made its first appearance yesterday afternoon. It is a seven column folio, edited by A. S. Ellison. The mechanical work is neat and the paper is a credit to the hustling little city it represents. May peace, prosperity and happiness attend the Citizen and its editor.

Delegates Elected.

The following delegates from West Washington street Baptist church were elected last night to represent their church in the Piedmont Baptist Association: R. W. Brooks, Dr. W. W. Rowe and J. C. Wilson.

The Piedmont Association will meet in the Summerfield Baptist church next Thursday.

Choir Practice for Union Meeting.

Those who have been requested to assist in the singing at the union meeting of the young people's societies, to be held next Monday night, will please meet for practice at West Market street church tonight at 8 o'clock.

RICHARDSON FOUND GUILTY.

AND IS SENTENCED TO FIFTEEN YEARS IN THE PEN.

The Evidence Was all Against The Prisoner—Jury Prompt in Rendering Verdict.

The trial of Luke Richardson for attempt with intent to rape was in progress yesterday afternoon when THE TELEGRAM went to press. The State introduced only one witness besides the young lady upon whom the attempt was made, and that was Maude Wilson, of whose subpoena we told yesterday.

The evidence was all against Luke. The young lady identified him as the person making the attempt, and Maude Wilson swore it was he she saw running from the scene of the crime.

The defense introduced no evidence whatever, and the State rested its case upon the evidence of the two above named witnesses. D. Schenck, Jr., opened the argument for the State. He was followed by Fitts, Richardson's attorney, after which Judge Bynum closed the argument for the State. The defense had the last speech.

The jury was out ten or fifteen minutes, when they returned with a verdict of guilty. Judge Adams then sentenced the prisoner to fifteen years in State's prison.

So far as we know the verdict and sentence meet with the hearty approval of all our citizens, both white and black. The accused was undoubtedly the guilty party and is to suffer the full penalty of the law for his heinous attempt.

Our people are to be commended for the wisdom they displayed in respecting the powers that be by allowing the law to take its course. Had they taken the matter into their own hands (as they would have done had they not had respect and confidence in the majesty of the law) the punishment would have been swifter and more terrible, but in so doing they would have made criminals of themselves. As it is, the law has been upheld and everybody is satisfied.

NEW LIBRARY AND GYMNASIUM.

Plans Completed and Work Will Begin at Once.

Greensboro Female College is to have a new library and gymnasium building at an early day. It will be remembered that at the June meeting the Board of Directors pledged, individually, the funds necessary for the building and so soon as he returns the contract will be let and work will begin about September 1st. Accommodations will be provided for 25,000 volumes. At present the library consists of about 7,000 excellently selected volumes and the library building used is too small for that number and the work will be pushed in order to get the books in accessible shape as soon as possible. The building will have a commodious reading room on one floor and a thoroughly equipped gymnasium on another. The exact location of the new building has not yet been decided upon but it will be placed near the present buildings. The building will give the G. F. C. the best library and gymnasium facilities of any female college in the State.

The college begins its year's work September 8th and the prospects are for a largely increased enrollment over last year.

Lawn Party This Evening.

The soft glow from Chinese lanterns, the merry strains of music from skilled fingers and bevels of bright and happy girls flitting here and there, bearing waiters of delicious ices and other dainties, make a scene which cannot fail to delight the senses and beguile the most care-worn into an hour or two of perfect enjoyment. This is what the ladies of West Market Street Church Aid Society promise their friends who favor them this evening by attending their lawn party at the residence of Rev. L. W. Crawford, on West Market street.

In case there are any who fear the evening air out-doors they will be served with refreshments in-doors.

Has Located in Greensboro.

We are glad to welcome to Greensboro Prof. J. M. Bandy, who has moved here from Trinity. He is a civil engineer and has come here to prosecute his profession.

He was, until the removal of the college to Durham, professor of mathematics in Trinity College. He is a fine mathematician, being considered by many as the ablest in the State.

ABOUT STREET WORK.

Some Good Work has Been Done—A Few Suggestions.

The Street Committee is having some excellent work done on our streets under the supervision of Street Overseer Sam Browne. In many parts of the city the ditches had been cleaned out, time after time, and the dirt thrown into the middle of the streets until they became too narrow, in places, for two buggies to pass. The work being done at present, instead of digging the ditches deeper, and thereby narrowing the streets, they are being filled up and the street gradually rounded to the center. This leaves ample drainage facilities and the improvement, both in the appearance and utility of the street, is very marked.

One thing in reference to our streets should be more carefully looked after. In places those who put bridges across the ditches allow drift to accumulate under them, closing up the ditches and turning the water into the street with disastrous results. In some instances the streets have been rendered almost impassable in this way.

The city, on the other hand, at a good many of the crossings, have allowed the drainage pipes to become closed, throwing the water upon the sidewalks and converting them into gullies. The citizens who are expected to keep up the sidewalks, very naturally object to this; just as the city objects to having the ditches blocked by neglected bridges. A little timely attention to these two points would greatly improve our streets.

Another point worthy of attention is the way in which ditches for water and gas pipes, on macadamized streets, are frequently filled in. A glance at our streets will show them full of bumps and depressions, whereas they were smooth when first laid.

The explanation for this is that excavations for piping have been improperly filled. Frequently those employed to do the work are ignorant of how it should be done. If the city would fix a rate of so much per cubic foot for filling these excavations, and then have the work done under city supervision, it would be better for the citizen and much better for the street. Those making gas and sewer connections would pay no more for it and the bad results above noted would be avoided.

To Keep History Correct.

THE TELEGRAM of August 7th, in its report of the Friends yearly meeting at High Point, contained the following statement:

"By the reports of the various quarterly meetings it was found that there were seventy-two members who dealt in, sold or used intoxicants."

Rev. Jos. Potts, pastor of the Friends church in this city, informs us that the statement is incorrect, showing from a tabulated statement that there are only fifty-seven members of the Friends society in the North Carolina yearly meeting, which includes the states of North Carolina and Tennessee, who use intoxicants, and none of them are dealers.

Our reporter made the statement upon the authority of statistics furnished him, hence there was no intention to misrepresent any one.

Opening of the City Schools.

By order of the City Board of Education the city public schools will begin the fall term on next Wednesday, September 1. The regular work will begin on the first day. It is very important that all pupils enter on that day.

All white children who desire to enter the city public schools for the first time may apply for examination at the Asheboro street school on next Saturday, August 28, from 8:30 to 11 a. m.; or at the Lindsay street school on the following Monday and Tuesday at the same hours.

G. A. GRIMSLEY,
Superintendent.

Wiley Keith Worse.

From the Winston Journal we learn that Wiley Keith, who was injured by an explosion on the occasion of the celebration of the return of the Winston firemen from the Fayetteville tournament, had a hemorrhage from the wounded hand yesterday morning. He had been improving all the time until yesterday morning, when his hand began to bleed profusely.

Mr. Keith is engineer of Steamer Co. No. 2, of the Winston fire department.

You can get the telegraphic news twelve hours earlier in THE TELEGRAM than in any paper that gets into Greensboro, and for four dollars a year less.

THAT enthusiast who wants the government to appropriate $500,000 to raise the Monitor from the bottom of the ocean must either imagine the United States owns a vast wheat farm or that that the price of old iron is fabulous. Why, that $500,000 would pension off any number of camp-followers and greasy ex-sulters and would even make a juicy morsel for the Havemeyers or Cramps. Doubtless the government has money to burn but not enough to burn the Atlantic.

EUGENE V. DEBS has issued a call for a convention of labor officials to be held in St. Louis, and speaks or resorting to the "methods of 1776" to settle labor difficulties. The injunction proceedings were an outrage but we will find methods other than those of '76 for setting matters right. Mr. Debs at the head of his army of coal miners would cut a figure beside which Jacob S. Coxey would shine forth a veritable military hero.

WHY do not the dispensers of pie follow the example of the New York bakers who have reduced the size of their loaves? The unprecedented demand for this American delicacy makes the supply woefully insufficient. This little trick of the trade would simplify matters wonderfully. If "half a loaf is better than no loaf" a pie might be pared a little at the edges and still find takers.

IT WOULD appear from recent developments that no extra ten per cent. was imposed by the Dingley Bill on Chinamen imported via Canada. The Chinaman takes the same method of getting into the country that the ten per cent. extra did of getting into the Bill. There is a good deal of the "heaven Chinese" about that measure anyway.

THE Ameer of Afghanistan stoutly denies that he has been inciting the Afidis to war, while the British say his dusky paw is unmistakably visible in the whole business. Evidently the Ameer has been taking lessons in English diplomacy to some purpose.

THE latest thing in the trust line is a gigantic window glass trust. We respectfully call the attention of Senator Butler to the fact that there is now a corner on light. Suppose some trust were to corner the wind next; wouldn't the Senator be in a fix?

IT is announced that a large part of the sugar output contains impurities. How strange that anything coming from the sugar trust should be impure. Here is a beautiful new paradox ready to your hand.

THE list of casualties resulting among the mosquitoes from that Jersey storm has not yet been published. That was not such an ill wind after all.

BRITANIA may "rule the wave" but she seems to be experiencing some difficulty in bossing the mountains just at present.

SPEAKING of that Asheville receivership, the Charlotte Observer goes to the seat of the trouble as follows: "It would not have had such a mean look about it if V. S. Lusk, Esq., had been appointed receiver of the First National bank of Asheville at the outset. But after George S. Powell, Esq., had been appointed receiver and his commission even made out, to have the appointment then held up merely because he was a Democrat and another man, no better qualified, put in his place, looks like a small piece of business. Mr. Lusk will doubtless perform his duties satisfactorily, but there is an aroma of the political will trow about this receivership transaction that is very unpleasant." We have have been noticing that same aroma of the political atmosphere for some days.

THAT threatened strike of scene-shifters will perhaps be put on the play bills as "A Farce-Comedy in One Act."

GENERAL NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

Two of the burned piers at Newport News have been rebuilt and are now in use.

Leading citizens of Alexandria are moving to secure the location of the government armor-plate plant in that city.

The American Window Glass Association was formed at Chicago to control the output and sale of that product.

The final conference of mine operators and strikers' officials at Pittsburg proved a failure, and the strike will continue.

Senor Romero, the Mexican minister, will attend as the representative of Mexico the national gathering of farming organizations in St. Paul.

The Western Passenger Association have declined to make a reduced rate in its territory for merchants who wish to go to New York to buy their goods.

Additional discoveries of pearls in Arkansas lakes and rivers have caused excitement, and thousands of persons are searching the waters in that State.

A party of Congressmen and a citizens' committee of Wheeling, W. Va., will go to San Francisco to present a silver service to the gunboat Wheeling.

The railroads of Prussia furnish more than half of the income of the government, according to Consul Monaghan's report to the State Department.

Another day passed without the completion of a jury to try Adolph L. Luetgert, who is accused of murdering his wife and destroying her body in Chicago.

Although reports from Cuba indicate a decrease in the mortality from yellow fever, the United States sanitary inspector at Havana says such reports are misleading.

Over 5,000 colored people at Mountville, S. C., have become worked up to a high pitch of religious excitement, and say they are taking part in the burial of Satan.

The Faber pencil firm, whose works are in Germany, have been fined $30,000 by the United States government on a decision that the goods imported by the firm have been undervalued.

The special board appointed by the War department will make an exhaustive inquiry into the needs of the artillery service in view of the approaching completion of seacoast defenses.

The Agricultural Department is preparing to make an experiment with a new forage plant which is indigenous to the Russian steppes, and is thought to be adapted to the plains of the Rocky mountains.

Smith M. Weed, an influential sound money Democrat, warns the New York Democratic State committee that if the Chicago platform is endorsed the sound money Democrats will not vote the State ticket for judge of the Court of Appeals this fall.

THE BOYS PAYING UP.

Judge Adams Makes Them Come to Time With Costs.

At every court the clerk has a great deal of trouble collecting costs and fines from parties who are to pay them. Judge Adams has been a clerk of the superior court himself for sixteen or eighteen years, hence he is in a position to sympathize with clerks along this line.

When he opened court here he notified Clerk Ragan to report all persons who did not pay their fines and costs promptly and he would call them up and change their sentence.

Mr. Ragan says the order was electrical in its effect. Never before since he has been in office has he had so little trouble in collecting money due the office. People know they must pay promptly or suffer the consequences in an extension of their sentences.

NO CHANCE OF ESCAPE.

This Deputy Had no Idea of Losing
His Man.

Yesterday afternoon a deputy was seen approaching the court house with a prisoner bound and guarded as if he were a notorious outlaw or a bloody murderer. Some one recognized the deputy as from Gibsonville, and everybody was sure the peace of that quiet section had been disturbed by another shocking homicide.

The crowd stood back to allow the guard and his prisoner to pass, and several persons prepared to lend assistance should the fettered culprit attempt to make his escape.

When a halt was made it was ascertained that the prisoner had been indicted and sent to court for stealing three pocket knives and for disturbing public worship at a colored church.

Whipped Her Slanderer.

The people in the vicinity of the Vance Mills store were treated to an unusual spectacle yesterday afternoon. It was the sight of a young lady administering a sound thrashing to a slanderer.

Miss Alice Whitman heard yesterday that Will Trexler, both parties of the Vance Mill, had made some slanderous statements about her. She approached Trexler and asked him if he had made the statements credited to him. He admitted his guilt but also admitted that he had lied. This did not appease the young lady, however. She requested a young man standing near by to get her a whip. He went out and cut her a big cedar switch about three feet long. Trexler did not budge and when the young lady began laying the switch on his back he still remained like the boy on the burning deck "unmoved."

The young lady administered about thirty telling blows and then retired. Her injured honor had been avenged. —Salisbury World.

What the World Cares for Me.

My feelings are the most sensitive, and I suffer the keenest pain from the least intentional insult or mistreatment or misfortune, but my disposition is such that my sufferings are entirely my own. I bother others as little as possible over my ills and bereavements.

Outside of my own home circle I am fully satisfied that no one cares but little for me. When in the round of every day life, if I suffer, why should I complain or even tell the man or woman whom I meet, who from custom say "How are you," that I suffer or am sick? It would be folly and only lead them to say "I am sorry" when, in most cases, that would not be so, as they are too busy to even think of me, for commonly in this busy world the only thoughts of men and women are divided into three classes: "What shall I do to live?" "How can I become rich?" or "By what method or means can I obtain something you have?"

My decision is to move with the tide as carefully as I can. If I am sick or suffer, bear it. What else can I do for I plainly see that

As the busy world goes round,
All busy as busy can be,
Whether I'm alive or under the ground,
The world cares but little for me.

This undoubtedly being the case, why should I complain? The only thing for me to do is to treat the world as it treats me. Think of it as little as possible and turn to my Lord and Savior, my only true friend. This is the only source on which I can rely. If I can help some souls to see this point and obtain the prize of a home beyond the sky, why should I care for what the world thinks of me?

NEWS OF THE TAR HEEL STATE.

Brodie has applied to Governor Russell for a reprieve.

Wake Forest College opened yesterday with 150 students present.

P. M. Brown, of Charlotte, has been appointed treasurer of Barium Springs Orphanage.

The Liquor Dealers' Association, which has been in session at Durham, has adjourned.

There is some talk of appropriating funds belonging to the State Board for the aid of public schools.

George Jackson, of Salisbury, was relieved of his pants by a burglar who entered his room. He lost $280.

Today's News and Observer contains a write up of Trinity College, with pictures of the faculty, buildings and grounds.

Efforts are being made to secure the removal of Maj. Jas. W. Wilson and Hon. S. Otho Wilson from the Board of Railroad Commissioners.

There is a movement on foot to have the fence around Capitol square removed. It is said that nearly all the State officials favor its being removed.

The Seaboard Air Line is using electric headlights on some of its engines as an experiment, and will probably put them on all its engines at an early day.

The report for 1897 of the Bureau of Labor Statistics will state that there are employed in North Carolina cotton mills 26,607 persons. In numbers Gaston county leads, with 1,336 women, 988 men and 581 children.

According to the returns of the Board of Equalization, Wake is the richest county in the State, its property being valued at $10,000,000. Buncombe comes second with $9,278,637; Mecklenburg third with $9,273,601.

The new board of directors of the penitentiary have employed an expert accountant to look into the books of the old board at a salary of $100 per month. It is said that the new board expects to unearth fraudulent entries.

It turns out that the convict who escaped some days ago from the Northampton State farm was allowed to escape by one of the guards whom he promised to send $500. The guard also gave him some money and a revolver. The guard has been dismissed.

Jack Jones, a negro preacher who preached the "holiness" doctrine, and who was whitecapped, and who procured the arrest of the negroes whom he claimed assaulted him, is under arrest. The persons whom he charged with the assault were acquitted and he was taxed with the costs.

It is understood that nearly all the stock for the new pants factory has been raised, and the plans of the company will shortly be announced. The capital stock is to be $25,000. It is thus practically assured that Charlotte will have another pants factory to add to the list of her industries in this line. —Charlotte News.

We call attention to the ad of the silk mills in another column. They wish to employ boys and girls from 12 to 14 years of age. The work is light and exceedingly clean, as it is the manufacture of silk ribbon.

A CURRY-COMB HAS MR. LEE.

IT WAS PRESENTED TO THE EVANGELIST IN HIGH POINT.

The Meetings Brought to a Close with Last Night's Service-- Local and Personal Notes.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., Aug. 26, '97.

Misses Kate Smith, Daisy Rankin, Bertie and Annie Tomlinson, Annie Ragan, J. L. Sechrest and family, Sam Sechrest, D. H. Wightenbury, Henry Harvey, Claude Wilburn and W. C. Jones are among the excursionists at the sea shore today. The excursion returns tomorrow.

Prof. Chas. Smith and family left last night for their home at Liberty, Mo. They have been visiting Dr. W. O. Jones, Mrs. Smith's father.

Miss H. Ingold came over from Randleman last night, accompanying her sister, Mrs. Clark, who was returning to her home in New York after a visit to her mother. Miss Ingold returned home this morning.

Rev. Mr. Lee's sermon last night was under two heads—"License" and "Personal Responsibility." After the sermon 110 names were received as members of the Anti-Saloon League. Others have been received today. High Point has the honor of having the first League in the State. Mr. Lee's field of labor has been in Virginia, and he has organized a number of Leagues in that State, as he intends to do in North Carolina. For good reasons he did not organize a League at Greensboro, but intends to do so in a short time. Its purpose is "the abolition of the saloons. The League, as such, pledges itself to avoid affiliation as a League with any political party, and to maintain an attitude of neutrality upon questions of public policy not directly connected with the traffic in strong drink." Rev. T. A. Smoot read an itemized list of the expenses of the meeting last night, which amounted to $66.71. The collections for this purpose have aggregated $66.07. The sale of the lumber used for seats will make up the difference.

S. Perry went to Salisbury this morning.

Rev. J. W. Lee changed his plans and closed his meeting last night with the temperance rally, instead of Thursday night, as previously announced in this column. The rally last night was a grand success, but not near so successful as it apparently would have been but for the thunder storm which broke loose in the midst of the sermon.

Mr. Lee had announced that he would use the curry-comb at this meeting, and last night he was presented with a curry-comb tied with white ribbon and accompanied by a very unique letter, which will be published in the Enterprise tomorrow. This was the gift of Dr. Bodenhamer.

There will be a church conference at the Baptist church tonight.

Rev. M. A. Kesler will preach morning and evening at the Baptist church next Sunday.

There were about 70 conversions and reclamations during Mr. Lee's meetings here, and names were handed in for membership with every church in the city.

Mrs. Mary Glass, of Randleman, spent last night in High Point.

Taylor Way, of Virginia, spent last night at the Jarrell. He is going on a visit to friends near Asheboro.

J. M. Brown, Esq., of Albemarle, is in the city.

Rev. Wm. Pinkham, spent last night in High point and left this morning. He was at the warehouse meeting last night and prayed a very fervent and interesting prayer.

Mrs. N. R. Richardson returned yesterday from Winston, after visiting her sister there.

Mrs. Ring, of Raleigh, spent last night with Mrs. J. W. Long. She is going to Charlotte, where Mr. Ring is going into the drug business.

A. R. Holt is fixing up the store room below Collins boarding house, where he will open up a grocery store.

Improvements are going on at the railroad crossing on Fayetteville street.

Off For Alaska.

Mr. Richard Merrimon, of Raleigh, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Lee S. Overman, left this morning for Seattle, Washington. From Seattle Mr. Merrimon will go to Alaska to seek his fortune in the Klondyke gold fields. Later on he will be joined by Mr. James D. Ennis.

Mr. Merrimon says that he is proof against the freezing temperature of Alaska. He states that he has been in Montana when the thermometer was 36 degrees below 0 and stood the cold without any especial discomfort.—Salisbury World.

Mr. Merrimon is a brother of W. B. Merrimon, of this city.

EVENING GOSSIP.
